Storage, drying equipment, auger equipment and any other facilities purchased from the undersigned are warranted by the manufacturer or same only and the Seller assumes no responsibility for property damage or grain damage through use of facilities purchased from said company or for any personal injuries to anyone incurred while erecting or using erection equipment or using said facilities after same are erected. No free erection labor is furnished by Seller unless written on the order. Buyer agrees that the Seller may remove from his premises any equipment that has not been paid for and is past due without let or hindrance. Insurance coverage against acts of God, fire or theft is the responsibility of Buyer upon delivery of bins and or equipment to site, whether for erection or turnkey job. Everything is sold unassembled.

All electrical wiring must be done by licensed electrician at buyers expense.

Forms and bin jacks available.

Subject to prices in effect at time of delivery.

If any pieces or minor items are not received upon delivery of the above equipment, the buyer agrees to pay the total contract price on the delivered products, less the back ordered items.

The undersigned understands and agrees that if the tangible personal property or services are used for any other purpose that is not exempt from sales tax, or compensating tax, the undersigned purchaser becomes liable for the tax.
